

Temple Beth Emunah Brotherhood and Sisterhood

in conjunction with area Churches and

Invites you to join us at the 17th annual luncheon to honor the memory of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.

Program

Father Francis J. Cloherty

A 19 year member of B.I.C. and original and continuing contributor to the MLK Luncheon

Sunday
January 15, 2012
1:15 pm
Temple Beth Emunah
479 Torrey Street
Brockton, MA 02301

Fr. Frank Cloherty is a native of Jamaica Plain section of Boston. He was educated at Boston Catholic schools, Boston College and St. John's seminary in Brighton. Since ordination in 1962, he has enjoyed sabbaticals at Harvard Divinity School (1975), Weston School of Theology (1984) and Tantur Ecumenical Institute on the West Bank-Jerusalem border(2000). He has served in such diverse parishes in Marblehead, Duxbury, Lowell, Revere, Boston and Brockton. He recently retired in 2011.

Fr. Cloherty is a recognized leader in Ecumenical and Interfaith dialog as well as in efforts to greater create a society that respects and lives out the values of truth, love justice and peace. Wherever he has served, he led his congregation so as to have the church make a difference in the city and to be a servant of the Reign of God.

Fr. Cloherty currently resides at St. Ann's in Quincy where is currently "assessing the situation."

LUNCHEON IS FREE AND OPEN TO PUBLIC

Please call in reservations by

(508) 583 - 5810